THE DAY OF ATONEMENT.

September 22nd. is observed as Yom Kippur, the Day of Atonement, by the Jews throughout the world. This is the greatest fast of the Jewish year. From sunset of the 21st till sunset of the 22nd the observant Jew neither eats nor drinks, but devotes the day to fervent worship. Yom Kippur is distinctive among Jewish holidays, for it is not associated with nature or with history. It is a day for the searching of the heart to find peace with God.

The fast originated in Biblical times and is described in the sixteenth chapter of the book of Leviticus. In those days the people fasted and afflicted themselves while the high priest made atonement for the entire house of Israel. This atonement was made in ancient fashion by sacrifices, and especially by the symbolic rite of driving the scapegoat into the wilderness to bar away the sins of the people.

Now prayers take the place of sacrifices. In modern Judaism prayer is the right form of approaching God. Jews devote the Day of Atonement to prayers for the forgiving of their sins. They avoid all ordinary and sordid interests on this Sabbath of Sabbaths. The fasting is abrogated, however, for children, old people and the sick, or in times of famine and pestilence, or such contingencies as are incident to the deprivations of war.

The aim of Yom Kippur is atonement through prayer and repentance. These contain no element of mediation through either a redeemer or a sacrifice. The only true repentance comes through change of heart and an effort to do better. Each human being stands before his Maker seeking in honesty to make his record clean.

A feature of Yom Kippur is the Memorial service. Men and women think of their dear departed and of the great and good who served mankind. Especially in times of stress, when many brave men are offering up their lives, fervor animates the prayers by which their names are honored and their ideals are preserved.

Hospital Ambulance

New Machine Arrives—Is Handsome Vehicle—Cost $3,000

The new ambulance for the Alexandria Hospital has arrived and today was seen on the streets for the first time. The ambulance is a handsome affair and modern in every respect and was greatly admired by all who saw it.

It is pearl gray in color and on each side is painted in gold letters "Alexandria Hospital." There are glass panels on which is painted a red cross in a gold circle. The panels are decorated with neat white satin curtains.

The interior of the ambulance is equipped with an up to date regulation stretcher, heating apparatus, medicine chest, physician's seat and both dome and side lights.

The machine was brought here yesterday from Philadelphia by Claude W. Fletcher of the Fletcher Motor Company and has been temporarily placed in Wheatley's garage. The ambulance was built by the Dodge Brothers, and the body constructed by the Thornton and Fuller Company of Philadelphia. It cost $3,000.

Through popular subscription the necessary funds for its purchase were secured, pratically everyone in the city donating for its purchase.

EXPLOSION WORK OF FIGHTING REDS

"American Anarchists" Demand Release of Political Prisoners

RECALLS PLOT OF 1919

Pay Little Attention to Fischer—Apparently Small Credence Placed in Theory he has Direct Knowledge

New York, Sept. 18.—Receipt by Department of Justice agents last night of five radical circulars, signed "American Anarchist Fighters," which were found in a mail box at Cedar Street and Broadway at 11.58 A. M. Thursday, furnished the first tangible clue, they said, to the identity of the the explosion in Wall Street, which three minutes later killed thirty-five persons, injured 200 others and caused property damage running into the millions.

In making public the circulars, which were printed on cheap paper, seven by eleven inches, Chief William J. Flynn, of the Bureau of Investigation of the Department of Justice called attention to the fact the bomb sent in the nation-wide bomb plot June 2, 1919, were wrapped in circulars announcing the coming of the revolution, and signed "Anarchist fighters."

The circulars, to which he said he attached the utmost importance, read: "Remember. We will not tolerate [illegible] any longer. Free th epolitical prisoners, or it will be sure [illegible] for all of you."

"In my opinion," Chief Flynn declared, "this is not an attack on J. P. Morgan and Co., I believe that those responsible picked out the financial center in order to create a demonstration."

The striking coincidence of postcard warnings giving notice of the district which were sent to men in the financial district by Edward Fischer, formerly an employe of the French high commission, received the attention of police and Federal authorities today, although apparently little credence is placed in the theory that he has any direct knowledge of the explosion. Chief Flynn, of the Department of Justice, expressed the belief he was simply a paranoiac, who happened "to hit it off right."

Examination of shrapnel found embedded in the bodies of some of the dead and of fragments removed in surgical operations on the injured has added weight to the belief that the explosion came from an infernal machine, and was not accidental.

An official conclusion to this effect will be filed Monday by Dr. Otto A. Schultz assistant medical examiner attached to the district attorney's office, he said last night.

Dr. Schultz examined the bodies of several dead and operated upon some of the injured. Deaths in many cases, he said, was due to perforating wounds from pieces of metal "directly associated with explosive materials." He insisted they were not parts of an automobile or wagon.

In his operations, he said he observed fragments of metal buried in the flesh of the wounded. Many of the slugs were about the size of a walnut, he asserted.

The city today offered $10,000 for information leading to the arrest and conviction of the person or persons responsible for the explosion and $500 for information leading to the identification of the owner of the wagon in which the explosion is known to have occurred. The Preferred Accident Insurance Company also offered $10,000 reward for information, leading to the arrest and conviction of the guilty parties.

The brokerage firm of Daniels & Co. today sent Mayor Hylan a check for $250, requesting him to use it as a nucleus for a fund to be raised for the relief of sufferers in the disaster. The letter points out most of those injured were clerks and stenographers in moderate circumstances.

PUBLIC SPEAKING.

Fire Alarm Device

Patented by R. O. Tomlin Tested Before Members of Council

An electrically operated automatic bell ringing device to ring the fire engine bells of the city, a patent of Robert O. Tomlin, of this city, was given a test last night. The affair took place at the Columbia fire engine company's house and was witnessed by the members of common council and Fire Chief Ogden.

The device causes the engine bell to strike 108 times and breaks of its own current.

Mr. Tomlin desires to install this device in the three fire engine houses and also one in the belfray of the city hall building, and the latter would be operated from police headquarters.

The affair it is pointed out would result in volunteer firemen responding to all alarms. Under existing conditions the firemen attending the fire engine houses have to depend on anyone to ring the bell to give an alarm to the volunteer firemen, and when the bell in the city hall is rung the members of the police force on duty at headquarters have to go from the station house to the steeple, a distance of about a square, causing considerable delay.

Within a short time a proposition will be submitted to city council to appropriate money for the purchase of the new device it is stated.

Suit Compromised

Case of C. M. Horgan Settled Out of Court

The suit of C. M. Horgan, former manager of the store, against D. Bendheim and Sons, Incorporated, as formerly represented by Messrs. J. M. Rodgers, Leon Hydemann and Louis Cohen, has been settled by a compromise agreement of the parties and will not come to trial.

The case attracted considerable attention throughout the city owing to the popularity of Mr. Horgan in business circles and his many friends are much pleased at the amicable adjustment of the case. When seen today, Mr. Horgan stated that it had been settled to his entire satisfaction. Attorneys Smith and Woolls represented Mr. Horgan, and the defendants by attorney G. L. Booth and R. B. Washington.

COURAGE REQUIRED OF FILM PLAYERS

"The Island of Regeneration" Has Thrilling Scenes.

It required courage on the part of the players to make "The Island of Regeneration," which will be shown at Idle Hour theatre today. In one scene the heroine is forced to climb out on the jibboom of a yacht riding at anchor and swing off on a rope into a launch. Following this, she drifts about the sea and is cast upon an island. With Antonio Moreno she approaches a volcano in eruption and dodges the flying lava and rock caused by an earthquake while the hero rescues her. A burning ship is another sensational scene in the film.

WILSON AIDS WITH PURSE AND PEN

Proposes to Help Win Verdict in "Solemn Referendum"

HINTS FOR SPEAKERS

Says League Seeks to Substitute Teaching For Galilean For That of Nietzsche and German Gen. Staff.

Washington, Sept. 18.—President Wilson in his letter to the Democratic National Committee inclosing his initial check for the campaign fund, makes it plain that his purpose as well as his purse has as its objective the realization of his hopes for America's participation in the League of Nations.

There is no doubt whatever but that the President has entered the campaign determined to do all in his power to effect a favorable vote on the solemn referendum" anent the League which vote, in January last, he declared would voice in no uncertain terms a demand for American participation in this international arrangement.

In the "Hints for Democratic Speakers," which have been prepared at the White House, the opening sentence gives a clue to the President's probable line of thought.

"There is too much discussion on the League of Nations in the abstract too little discussion of it as a living, vital thing in the affairs of the world," says the prelude of the White House document. "What is it? It is an association of the free nations of the world, the object of which is freely to discuss, and investigate the causes of war before nations actually go to war."

Further indication of the line of thought the President will pursue in his advocacy of approval of America's entrance into the League, together with a majority of the civilized nations is found in other expressions in the "hints for speakers."

"I confidently predict that there is not an aggressive people in the world who would dare bring a wrongful purpose to that jury (the Council of the League of Nations), is one of the White House statements.

"It (the League) is a modern attempt to prevent war by discussion in the open and not behind closed doors," is another observation.

"It is the substitution of the teaching of the Galilean for the teaching of Nietzche and Treitschke and the German general staff," said another of the hints.

"The principle underlying the League of Nations," says another paragraph, "is the essence of Christianity; it is the embodiment of the underlying principle of the Ten Commandments; it is the gospel of Christ as opposed to the iniquity of Meloch."

In conclusion, the White House viewpoint is expressed as follows, in the "hints to speakers:"

"The fact of the matter is that there is no choice—it is either the League of Nations or another great war, perhaps the final war of a civilization. Is this experiment worth while? Is it worth a trial?"

This, having emanated from the White House, may be expected to be the line of argument President Wilson will pursue in his personal efforts on behalf of the League.

BIG GAME TOMORROW

Dreadnaughts Will Cross Bats With Knickerbockers Tomorrow at High School Grounds

What will probably be Alexandria's greatest drawing card of the year will take place tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock on the Alexandria High school field when the Knickerbockers, holder of the consecutive win record of the District meet the local Dreadnaughts, holder of the same record for Northern Virginia tems, in the third and deciding game of a three game series. It will be remembered by the local fans that it was the above Georgetown club that administered the only defeat the big "D" lads received this season out of thirty-six games played the Alexandrians evening up the score last month on the Knicks home field over in Georgetown "hollow," so tomorrow's is bound to be a hum-dinger as both clubs will fight tooth and nail from the moment that Umpire Woodward calls "play." The Knicks rooters are coming over 2000 strong, while from all reports the fast-going Dreadnaughts will not lack its supporters, the game, no doubt, drawing the largest crowd that ever saw a game in this Virginia city. The field has been put in good order extra seats have been provided, also additional ropes have been stretched, so that everyone coming to see the game will have no trouble or inconvenience whatsoever. Two of the best officials in this section will handle the game. Mr. Richard Woodward behind the bat and Mr. Jas. Hughes on the bases, which is enough said. Eligibility lists have been passed to the respective managements and in order to get this game played here in Alexandria so that all local followers could conveniently see same, the Dreadnaughts had to give the Knickerbockers the largest guarantee any team has received here for some time past and it is hoped that the collection will justify said action. Time, 3 p. m. tomorrow, place High School Field, Let's go.

50 BOTTLES SURROUND DEAD MAN IN BARN

Scranton, Pa., Sept. 17.—Surrounded by about fifty patent medicine bottles that had contained Jamaica ginger and wintergreen extract, the body of Joe Miller, former engineer of the D. L. & W. Railroad Company was found in a barn at Hopbottom, Wyoming county.

On the day that his body was discovered young men of the village had shaved off half his mustache and also part of his hair. Some years ago Miller, when an engineer, suffered an injury to his head and seemed to have become mentally unbalanced.

After he had been compelled to retire from the company's services he became a character of Hopbottom, sleeping in barns and shanties.

GAS PLANT CRIPPLED BECAUSE OF NO COAL

Householders Seriously Inconvenienced This Morning

NO GAS COAL IN SIGHT

Working On Two Car Loads of Borrowed Coal—Only Enough to Last Till Monday —Situation Critical

The city gas plant was badly crippled for several hours today because there was no coal and it caused great inconvenience to householders depending on gas to cook their breakfast and small manufacturing plants using gas for operating their establishments also were temporarily put out of business.

Supt. F. W. Latham of the gas plant, stated to a representative of The Gazette, that the plant was without any gas coal whatsoever and only yesterday received two car loads of coal such as is used for steam purposes and this was being used today. This coal, however, he explained is not suitable for manufacturing gas, but they had to use this or nothing.

The two cars of coal were received from the District government and it is stated that this quanity of coal will last until Monday. Unless other coal is the meantime received Alexandria will be compelled to completely close down its gas plant and consumers will have to do the best they can.

It was after 10 o'clock this morning before consumers could secure a sufficient supply of gas to use for either cooking of commercial purposes. The gas office was besieged with calls from every section of the city during the early morning hours.

Flat dwellers were compelled to either hurry to cafes or restaurants in order to get their breakfast this morning or do without their usual hot coffee. Many householders, however, made fires in their kitchen coal ranges and, although not prepared for such an emergency, cooked breakfast on them.

Never before in the history of the gas plant have they had so much trouble in regard to coal. It was stated at the gas office this morning that the coal for the gas plant had been ordered but that it had been taken, while enroute, by the railroads and finally Alexandria's plant was left without any coal whatsoever.

Citizens are greatly alarmed over the situation and it is expected that some action to obtain results before the plant is compelled to discontinue operations entirely will be taken by the authorities. As it now stands no one can tell just when they will receive coal to operate the plant after the two car loads are exhausted which Mr. Latham says will be Monday.

RETURNED FROM MEETING

Miss Helen Norris Cummings has returned from Washington where she spent the past week attending the meeting held in Lafayette Hotel of the national officers of the General Federation of Women's Club and a director from each state. Miss Cummings is the director from Virginia. A series of entertainments for the delegates culminated yesterday afternoon in a tea given by Mrs. Burleson wife of the Postmaster General and attended by the members of the cabinet and their wives. Miss Bolling poured tea, although Mrs. Woodrow Wilson was prevented from being the hostess on this occasion, as was the original plan.

CAMERON CLUB

Following the outline suggested by the General Federation of Women's Clubs, the Cameron Club has definitely planned a series of four talks.

The local meeting will have the mayor, the Chamber of Commerce and representative business interests of the city while the other three lectures will be county, state and nation, given on three successive evenings.

Further announcement will be made of these lectures, giving the date and place of meeting.

Let Punishment Fit The Crime.

Not since the scoundrelly dynamiters blew up the Los Angeles Times building, sending thirty-five souls to eternity, has the country been so stirred and shocked by any occurrence of infernal misadventure as that which visited New York yesterday when an explosion, presumably of a time bomb, killed thirty-five persons and injured several hundred more. Although the authorities were at first loth to believe the terrible crime was premeditated, proofs, strong as Holy Writ, impel the investigators to that view. The iron slugs found imbedded in the bodies of mutilated victims, and the unmistakable odor of the deadly chemicals entering into the composition of the bomb, betray the ghastly origin of the tragedy and indicate the awful responsibility of the terrorists that plotted the colossal crime. Every resource of the republic must be enlisted to run to earth the radicals whose dastardly work has so convulsed—and enraged—the nation. All participants, even remotely connected with the plot, must be given short shrift. In that way only the future safety of the country lies. The most colossal miscarriage of justice occurred in California when the two chief assassins who bombed the Times building were, by a miserable arrangement between prosecuting attorney, counsel for defense and trial judge, allowed to go to the penitentiary for life, instead of the gallows. Heaven send that no such wretched leniency be accorded the wholesale murderers responsible for yesterday's dreadful fatalities. When apprehended, let their trial be prompt and brief and their transference to the electric chair be as expeditious almost as the result of their vicious work on their innocent victims, whose blood cries aloud for reprisals—Richmond Journal.

Wanderlust!

Out on the hills with the winds ablowing,
Under a deepening sky,
Down in the valley the cattle lowing
While gossamer clouds roll by!

O day of days to be out in the meadows,
Knee deep in goldenrod,
Following the lark as it onward goes
And to smell the fresh smell of the sod!

Autumn fires are crying, crying!
Calling you to the road,
Wanderlust deep in your soul is sighing,
To heed the call of the goad!

Out on the hils with the rains a-falling,
Flashes of lightning grim,
Thunderous peals of thunder scaling
Come rid your soul of all sin!

Leave all your burdens and cares behind you,
Come out on the broad highway,
Forget all else, to yourself be true,
And answer the call to-day!

GOOD ROADS.

The following resolution was unanimously passed at the second annual convention of the Department of Virginia, held at the Jefferson Hotel, Richmond, September 2, 3 and 4, 1920.

"Believing that the establishment and development of a system of modern roads throughout Virginia is a pressing need for the future welfare of the State and for its continual economical development."

"Now therefore be it resolved by the Virginia Department of the American Legion in this Second Annual Convention assembled that all members of the American Legion actively interest themselves in all movements looking toward the construction of good roads under the direction of either the State or Federal government and make every effort to create an intelligent, energetic, and unselfish support for such movements."

In keeping with the recommendation of the resolution "that all members of the American Legion interest themselves in all movements looking toward the construction of good roads," the attention of each post is called to the following proposed amendment to the Constitution of the General Assembly subject to ratification by a vote of the people at the general election November 2nd.

The fact that some of the prohibition enforcement agents are in league with the illict dealers in liquor shows that when Booth Tarkington said human nature was the same in Kokomo and in Paris he might have added, "and in every generation."

The law of supply and demand seems to be that when there's a demand the speculators shove up prices, observing blandly that there's shortage of supply.

"Call no man great till he's dead," is a very good rule as many can tell, but a little flattery now and then has been helpful to a host of men.

LIGHTEST KIND OF WORK HE WOULD SURELY SHIRK

Lazy Lorenzo and dog-tired Dick were discussing something they knew little about—work.

"I think," said Lazy Lorenco, "that if they did away with work altogether it'd put an end to these 'ere strikes."

"Yus," said dog-tired Dick. "That'll be the time when everythin'g done by electricity. Only got to press a button and the job's done."

A slow horror dawned in Lazy Lorenzo's eyes.

"That won't do!" he said emphatically. "Who's a-goin' to press the button?"

Emphasizes Religious Liberty.

No discrimination should be made on account of religious belief against any alien attempting to enter the United States, the Department of Justice has ruled in passing on an appeal raised by George H. Biddle from the attempt of immigration authorities to bar his entrance. Biddle is secretary of the "standfast" section of the International Bible Students' Association, which group came into conflict with the government during the war because of its insistence upon pacifism. Biddle's case was brought up when he desired to cross the Canadian border to attend a convention of the organization in the United States.

"The United States was founded upon the principles of both civil and religious liberty," R. B. Mahany, Acting Secretary of the department, said in the decision. "We claim the right of every man to worship God according to the dictates of his own conscience or not to worship God at all if he so desires. The principles mentioned are the foundation of American government. It is therefore not believed that the mere fact of membership in the organization should prejudice the right of aliens to admission to the United States."

In some sections it is reported that churches are in.

IN MEMORIAM

BROWN—In sad and loving remembrance of my dear friend WILLIAM G. BROWN, who died suddenly one year ago tomorrow, September 19, 1919.

I do not know the pain he bore,
I did not even see him die,
I only know he went away
And could not say good-bye.
Often I think of you dear sweetheart,
And [illegible]eart is sad with pain,
Oh, this [illegible]h would be a heaven
Could I but hear your voice again.
Deep is the grave in which he is laid.
Sweet is the memory that never will fade.
Heart of my life is buried deep
Under the sod where he peacefully sleeps.
Farewell, dearest one, farewell once more,
Thy weary work on earth is done,
Thy tired eyes no more will weep
For God has closed them in peaceful sleep.

By his sweetheart Nell. 224-1p

A BIT OF ADVICE

First—Don't Delay. Second—Don't Experiment.

If you suffer from backache; headache or dizzy pell; if you rec poorly and are languid in the morning; if the kidney secretions are irregular and unnatural in appearance, do not delay. In such cases the kidneys often need help.

Doan's Kidney Pills are especially prepared for kidney trouble. They are recommended by thousands. Can Alexandria residents desire more convincing proof of their effectiveness than the statement of an Alexandria citizen who has used them and willingly testifies to their worth.

Mrs. E. J. Ayers, 319 South Columbus St., says: "I have found Doan's Kidney Pills a valuable remedy. I have used them at different times when my back has been weak and lame and they have always given me good relief in a short time. Doan's seem to hit the right spot and I always recommend them to my friends."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Ayers had. Foster-Milburn Co. Mfgrs., Buffalo, N. Y.

ONE BRITISH ISLAND FREE FROM TAXATION

Those who have read "Westward Ho!" remember Lundy Island, which lies in the English Channel. It is one of the best known of the many island "monarchies" that surround Great Britain.

It is a delightful little jewel that was once the haunt of pirates and smugglers. It was once captured by French pirates, and later fell into the hands of Turkish privateers.

While the island may not be the real paradise of man, it is actually owned by the Heaven family. A clergyman by that name rules over a kingdom of 1,200 acres and fewer than 500 souls.

No one can dwell of this island without the consent of the owner. It is declared in the deed from the British Crown to be forever free from taxation.

SPRING HOUSE BOASTS OF PATRIOTIC CORN

Spring House, Pa., Sept. 16.—Patriotic sweet corn is the cynosure of all eyes in this section. The kernels of the corn raised by Julius Rompp, carriage builder, of Spring House, are red, white and blue, say those who have been dazzled by its glory.

The corn has a splendid flavor and is luscious as well as ornamental, Mr. Rompp says, he does not know what kind of corn it is. He says the seed was bought in Philadelphia this spring.

E. W. Gray of Scranton, Penn., writing to the New York Sun, says: "If the defeat of Cox should cost $15,000,000 it will be cheap at the price." There is no doubt that the Republicans are raising the money inspired by exactly that feeling.

It now is said that the estate of the late Mr. Searles, reported $50,000,000, is about $5,000,000. High prices never cause as much shrinkage in wealth as commonly occurs when the estates of the reputedly rich are totaled up by the administrator.

MOVIES

Many Opportunities to Show Strength

Antonio Moreno has splendid opportunities to display his athletic training and superb physical development in 'The Island of Regeneration,' which will be shown at the Idle Hour theatre tonight. The play, which is based on the novel by the Rev. Cyrus Townsend Brady, tells the story of a six year old boy who is cast on an uninhabited island in the South seas and lives there alone for twenty years. Mr. Moreno appears as the boy grown to manhood.

Quite naturally, knowing practically nothing of civilization, the man is unshaven and unshorn. His scant clothing is made of grasses and leaves and his mode of living most primitive but his physical development is almost abnormal.

Then comes the girl, also a castaway, and all is changed. In the two years they remain on the island she makes a man of him, and when help reaches them and he is able to leave the island, a barber and a tailor work wonders. Mr. Moreno's portrayal of the man who gradually awakens to the realization that there is another world than his own little island is splendidly done.

INGOMAR—"LAHOMA"

"Lahoma," the big Edgar Lewis-Pathe feature showing tonight at the Ingomar Theatre is a story of the early days in the territory now known as Oklahoma. Every man, in those days, was a maker of history. The country now comprising Oklahoma was, in 1880, at the time the story opens, known as No Mans Land. It was set aside as Indian country and white settlers were forbidden to locate on it.

Richmond Theatre—"45 Minutes fro Broadway"

Chas. Ray in "Forty-Five Minutes from Broadway", Geo M. Cohan's best play, was seen by a large and appreciative audience at the Richmond last night. The star was never seen to a better advantage and the play was far above the average photoplay. It will be repeated again tonight.

EXCELLENT PICTURES COMING

George M. Cohan was one of the greatest stars the speaking stage ever produced, but his acting in "45 Minutes From Broadway" was never better than that of Charles Ray, who appeared in this famous play at the Richmond theatre last night. The writer has seen Cohan in the stellar role of this play and without question, Charles Ray equals this great star of the legitimate stage.

The part of Kid Burns, the lightweight prize fighter and his leap into the middle of the society swim is graphically depicted by Ray and the comedy vein that underlies all the various scenes in the picture is calculated to keep the audience in perfect humor throughout the entire evening. The same picture is to be repeated tonight for the last time.

A society scandal and the efforts of a woman to keep down the past, is splendidly told in "The Notorious Miss Lisle," the picture featuring Katherine MacDonald. "The American Beauty" which is to be shown at the Richmond theatre Monday and Tuesday of next week. This is one of the latest First National releases of this famous actress and is one of the best offerings at the local theatre for the coming week.

Ethel Clayton, a favorite with Alexandria movie fans, comes to the Richmond Wednesday in "Crooked Streets," a picture that was shown in Washington but a short time ago. A Mack Sennett comedy, "His Last False Step," featuring Ford Sterling and Phyllis Haver will also be shown.

Wallace Reid, the idol of thousands of movie patrons the country over will be the attraction at the Richmond Thursday in "The Dancin' Fool" This picture is advertised as being the tale of the jigger who put jay in Jazz.

For Friday and Saturday First National offers one of the greatest plays ever filmed, "The Jack Knife Man." It is a true story of life along the Mississippi river and the fact that it was filmed and directed by King Vidor proves its worth. The story is by Ellis Parker Butler, author of "Pigs is Pigs" and is one of the greatest ever written by this great author.

The following pictures are to be offered at the Ingomar during the coming week:

Monday—Ruth Roland in the most exciting of western serials, "Ruth of the Rockies." Also Charlie Chaplain in "Behind the Scenes"; Tuesday, Mary Pickford in "Rebecca of Sunnybrook Farm"; Wednesday, Bessie Barriscale in "Beckoning Roads"; Thursday, Hale Hamilton in "After His Own Heart" and Al St. John in "The Window Trimmer;" Friday, Bryant Washburn in "The Sins of St. Anthony"; Saturday, Robert Warwick in "Jack Straw."

MISSING N. Y. GIRL INHERITS FORTUNE

WANTED—To know the whereabouts of Elaine Barton, who formerly lived at No. 1208 Fulton Street, then at Macon Street, about eighteen years ago; mother's name, Celestine Barton. Reward for information leading to present address. B. M. E. Eagle, Bedford Branch.

Elaine Barton is the daughter of Celestine Eizabeth Miller, a Brooklyn woman whom the notorious "Lord Barrington" married a number of years ago. Search is being made for the girl, who according to Maj. J. E. Hastings-Seymour, an attorney, is the heiress to one of her father's estates in England.

Following the sentencing of her father to life imprisonment in St. Louis in 1905, the mother obtained a situation with a family on Columbia Heights, Brooklyn, the girl at the time being adopted by the family of Ferdinand Danton, an artist. In 1908 Mr. Danton resigned his post as art instructor at Manhattan College, and is reported to have gone to Washington.

Neither is there any trace of the girl's mother, Elaine, if living, is twenty-eight years old. Her talent both for acting and for art and her portrayal of a charcter in an amateur play drew the praise of Ellen Terry.

Mr. Dalton, seeing some of her sketches, took an interest in the daughter. He gave instruction to the child, who was then thirteen years old, and convinced Mrs. Barton that Elaine should have an opportunity to develop her talents. The mother agreed to the adoption.

"I am instructed not to reveal the amount of Elaine's inheritance," said Major Hastings-Seymour; "but it will make her independent. It is one of the several estates that her father left in England."

"Lord Barrington" has been dead several years.

"MOST BEAUTIFUL" MYTH.

Again the "most beautiful women" contest affronts the public intelligence. Not long ago a theatrical manager proclaimed that he would have as a feature of his show the "most beautiful girls" in America. Now it is a photographer from England who announces his intention to aim his camera at "the five most beautiful women" in our nation.

In either case, if those having a wide-open mouth in making this blatant assertion will close it enough to see over it, they might at least point out their route of inspection, indicating how they propose to enter the homes of about 32,000,000 voting daughters and millions not yet of voting age, to select the "most beautiful."

Also, the British photographer might join the Broadway showman in explaining the offensive assumption that it accords with the most beautiful American women's sense of the properties to be exhibited as a public sight.
